Mr. Campbell

Ask the school office for a Leave of Absence Form (with as much notice as possible).

We are all happy to help. Please talk to the office staff, Mr. Campbell or your child's teacher.

Did you know?

Attendance below 90% is judged as 'persistent' absence
Attendance below 50% is judged as 'severe' absence
Our school target is 100% attendance

What is school doing to encourage good attendance?

- Making school a happy and welcoming place to be.
- Celebrating great attendance e.g. through PTCs, in reports etc..
- Informing parents about their child's attendance.
- Identifying and working closely with families in need of support.
- Looking carefully at attendance data and trends for patterns and areas to improve.

- 1) Office staff will call by 9:30am. All other contacts will be called if there is no response. This will continue, in attempt to ascertain a reason for the absence.
- 2) If there is no response by 10:30am, a member of staff may visit your home for a welfare check, as a child missed from education is classed as a safeguarding concern
- 3) If there is no response, a note may be posted to notify you we've visited and requesting an urgent response.
- 4) We may need to contact external professionals, or if seriously worried, the police.

This is a very time-consuming and unnecessary process. Please call as early as possible (and before 9:00am) so that we know you and your family are safe.

What will happen if my child does not arrive at school and school does not know where they are?

When does the Local Authority get involved in my child's attendance?

When a pupil has 10 or more sessions of unauthorised absence (5 school days), the attendance monitoring process begins. The process involves phone calls and an initial formal warning letter. If no improvement is made, a panel meeting may be held. A legal meeting (PACE) is held next and a penalty notice and/or prosecution may be served if attendance continues to decline.

When will fixed penalties (fines) be issued?

- For holidays taken in term time, a penalty notice of £60 per child will be issued (going up to £120 if not paid promptly).
- For persistent and severe absence, where support has been refused or has not been successful over a sustained period of time, the penalty notice is considerably more than a holiday penalty.
